

The Pentland Junior Singers are looking for a new Musical Director

About us:

- We are a youth choir for children aged 8 to 14 based in Balerno.
- We perform two concerts a year in conjunction with the Pentland Singers, take part in the Balerno Music Festival and compete in the Edinburgh Competition Festival.
- We sing a wide variety of choral, folk and world music and songs from shows and films in unison, two and three part harmony
- Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening, during term time, in Balerno Parish Church from 6.00pm to 7.00pm.
- We are supported by the Pentland Singers who are a registered charity and are managed by a committee elected by our members.

We are seeking a new Musical Director who will:

- Have experience of teaching and developing musical skills and abilities with children
- Have a clear conducting style
- Encourage and develop the choir's musicality and skills.
- Have a track record of producing rehearsal and concert programmes that appeal to children with a range of musical tastes and are popular with audiences.
- Work with the committee and adult choir musical director in planning varied programmes.
- Be comfortable working with other professional musicians when required and has good contacts in the music world.
